SANDHERR STARS IN HARD LUCK CONTEST

His Stick Work Resulted in Both Runs Scored by Colts Against Roanoke Yesterday.

VISITORS BUNCHED HITS

Walker Had Best of Hale, but the Latter Kept Colts Guessing at Intervals.

By bunching hits in the sixth and ninth innings of the game with Richmond yesterday, Rosnoke took the opening game of the week-end series by 4 to 2, and thus tied up the race for championship honors. Outbatted and outfielded, the Highlanders braced with the library and many bases, and and outfielded, the Highlanders braced when Lipe's men got on bages, and when their own men got past first base the necessary hit seemed always forthcoming. It was a lucky victory, and a hard game for the Colis to lose. Walker had all the best of Hale, but he did not possess the knack of keeping the safeties scattered, while the visiting pitcher was especially strong when there were chances for his opponents to the up the game. There were sensational phys, but these were more than offset by the frequent recurrence of errors. Keifel's must of Doyle's high foul fly in the sixth was responsible for Roanoke's second tally, but none of the other scores was due to errors.

Sandherr the Star.

Sandherr was the star of the game both at bat and in the field, and but for his stick work, it would have been a shut-out game for Richmond. Sandherr was the star of the game both at bat and in the field, and but for his stick work, it would have been a shut-out game for Richmond. Of eight fielding chances, many of which were difficult ones, the shortstop accepted all. His three-bagger in the fifth rolled behind the centre field bleachers, and came very near resulting in a home-run. It was one of the longest hits made on the Broad Street field this season.

The game was not played in record time, but considering the number of hits and the misplays, the nine innings were remarkably short ones. When the Colts filled the bases in the ninth inning, after one man was out, a hit might have tied the score, as Sandherr, had scored his second run of the game. Walker killed the chances by going out from Doyle to Pressly.

Both teams went out in order in the first run came over on a fielder's choice. Tydeman was thrown out at first by Sandherr. Titman singled for Richmond in the second, but not until after two men were out. He did not reach second. Smith singled in the third, and stole second. He ran over the base, however, and was caught, Doyle to Newton. Neither team hit again until the fifth.

DOVES IN SLUGGING MATCH

BOSTON, MASS, July 8.—A high wind blow clouds of dust across the field; making good playing almost impossible in the game prevented possible scoring. Willett was very wild, but despite seven passes in as many innings, would have gone to a tie but for triples by Davis and Baker, with two out in the eighth. The visitors ran wild on Stanage and their fielding was more certain than Detroits. The score:

ARTISTIC TAU ORING

We've the sort of Clothes that possess an indescribable style, or something, not seen in "Just Clothes."

Call it what you may—it's there—and you'll notice it the moment you try on one of our garments.

You pay no more here for Clothes, however, than you do elsewhere—and oftentimes not so much.

Take our $10.00, $15.00 or $25.00 Suits, our $5.00 and $6.00 Trousers! Match the price and the quality of these garments at the same time, elsewhere, I you can!
